

This is a detailed technical drawing of a residential development plan. The plan shows the layout of several buildings, including a large rectangular building labeled 'ул. Пионерная, 63' and another labeled 'ул. Канонерки, 65'. The buildings are surrounded by streets and paths, with various numerical annotations indicating elevations or coordinates. The plan also includes symbols for different types of infrastructure, such as roads, paths, and utility networks. The drawing is oriented with North at the top, as indicated by the 'С' (Север) symbol in the bottom right corner. The plan is a technical drawing, likely a site plan or a map, used for urban planning and construction purposes.
